Help Those in Need

The church office is now accepting donations of the following items to assist those living in tent communities served by our Hot Meals Ministry: blankets, coats, tarps, and tents.

Donations to the food pantry are always accepted at the church office or in the narthex before or after daily or weekend Mass.

If you wish to donate to any of our ongoing particular ministry efforts, please write on the memo line of checks the ministry to which your donation is intended, i.e., "Hope House/A Hand Up", "Hot Meals", or "Orchard Knob Middle School".

Good News! We are already beyond the halfway mark of our effort to raise $25,000 to help prepare our parish's designated section of Hope House in Trenton. We will be hearing from Cissy Coleman from time to time about the good work being done for the ladies in residence at Hope House and the many ways our parishioners can lend a helping hand!

Behold I Make All Things New

A Retreat Day for Our Lady of the Mount

We are only just beginning to emerge from an as yet unfinished global pandemic.

At this time, many fear that 'this is the way it will always be.' But our spiritual lives and experience of God were never meant to be a repeat of what has gone before.

Instead, God, through the prophet Isaiah, is promising to make all things new for everyone. God invites us to remember, to trust, and to hope in this promise. We need to believe in the power of the Risen Christ again, in what he can do in the least of us.

Fr. Jim Wallace, C.Ss.R.

Fr Jim, ordained in 1970, has been a professor of preaching and then the director of San Alfonso Retreat House before becoming a member of the Redemptorist mission team. His published works include: Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart.

Fr. Philip Dabney, C.Ss.R.

Father Philip, ordained in 1978, has taught in the seminary, was rector of the Redemptorist house of studies, a vocation director and a parish priest. He has preached numerous parish missions and retreats for laity and religious.
